

Rotational Grazing

As simple as the graph!

The Methodology

Rotational grazing means moving livestock to new paddocks to rest and regrow the previously grazed paddocks before the next grazing.

1. Consider how much land can be used for pastures.
2. Make sure you have enough resources to set up fencing and watering systems.
3. Keep track for consumption within each paddock to maximise efficiency grazing.

